THE NARROWS

Weather permitting, we will take a hike to The Narrows, a gorge formed by a series of cliffs seventy-five feet high and a quarter mile in length along the Blanco River. The Narrows was part of the Hermann Schlameus ranch and appeared on local tourist maps from the 1930s through the 1950s, when it was a scenic park. The ranch was sold in the early 1960s, and the Narrows was closed to the public. Well Spring has permission to take private groups to tour this beautiful area.
